

Processing your application

Timescales:
The majority of graduate applications are considered between December and March, with 80% of our formal offers made in February & March.

Self Service:
You can find out where your application is in this process on your Graduate Admissions Self Service Account.
Self service pages